

Subject Index

- A-B-C model, 183
- Abilities, 51
- Abuse
control stories and, 158–159
in traditional relationships, 115–116
- Acceptance, 89. See also Yielding/accepting modes of
control
in generalized anxiety disorder
case study, 240–241
strategies for, 79
- Active control. See also Modes of
control
bias toward, 22–23
stress and, 67–68
- Adaptation
environmental control and, 28
to physical disease, 6, 95
- Addiction. See also Adult children of alcoholics; Substance dependence
to alcohol, 6
- Adult children of alcoholics
clinical assessment of, 53
mental health control profiles
and, 47
- Affection, sex, control, and, 272–277
- Affirmations, for client use, 203
- Age and aging, 182. See also Nursing homes developmental control factors
and, 29–30
- Agency of control, 24, 50. See also Other; Self
client control dynamics and, 152
development stages and, 29
gender and, 30
groupings of agent and object, 306
in healthy relationships, 110
limitations of normal control
profiles and, 66–67
moving from suboptimal to optimal control, 75
optimal control and, 81–84
“other” categories of, 302 SCCAS coding agent and object of
control, 304, 305
SCI measurement of, 37
“self” categories of, 302
self or other as, 44, 122–123
- Agency vs. communion, 29
- Aggression
heart disease and, 96
by males, 114
sense of control and, 70
by women, 117

- Alcohol addiction. See Addiction;
 Adult children of alcoholics
- Alienation, 58
- Aloneness, in balanced relationship, 124
- Ambiguity of life, 164
- Ambivalence phase, of transition
 relationship, 117-118
- Analytic perspective of therapy, 134
- Analytic tradition, 9-11, 18
- Androgyny
 high, 121
 literature, 79
 transitional phase, 116-117
- Anger. See also Aggression
 interventions for management of, 264-267
 sense of control and, 70
- Animals, behaviors by gender, 114
- Anorexia nervosa, 99-100
 control and, 59
- Anxiety. See also Anxiety-related disorders; Generalized anxiety; Generalized anxiety disorder
 case study
 control and, 6, 65
 mental health control profiles
 and, 46
 SCI control profiles for, 47-49
 self as agency of control and, 67
 studies of patients with, 229
- Anxiety-related disorders
 case study of generalized anxiety disorder, 231-242
 control and, 6, 47-49, 58, 87
- Apes, behaviors by gender, 114
- Appearance, obsession about, 97
- Arrival myth, 88
- Assertive/change modes of control, 23, 78-79, 83. See also Balanced relationships
 balancing, 121
 body scan and, 187-188
 combining with
 yielding/accepting modes, 181-182
 control mode rehearsal and,
 191-193
 diaphragmatic breathing and, 187
 five steps for gaining control, 173-178
 handouts for clients, 197-199
 mental scan and, 189
 negative cognitions regarding, 255 process interventions
 emphasizing, 141-142
 as Prometheus' Way of Change, 194-195
 self-evaluation, goal-setting, and, 189-191
 self-observation and, 183-186
 techniques for developing, 170-173
 therapist's use of, 137
- Assertiveness training
 in couples therapy, 266, 267-268
 ethical considerations in, 146-147
- Assessment. See also Inventory; Measurement of control; Scales;
 specific items
 of client control dynamics, 153-169
 in control-based approach to clinical treatment, 230
 of self-efficacy beliefs, 225-226
 with Shapiro Control Inventory (SCI), 36-37
 of therapeutic change, 53-54
 in therapeutic encounter, 131-133
 therapists' views of, 138-142
- At-risk population, adult children of alcoholics as, 6, 46
- At-risk profiles
 and five steps for assertive/change mode of
 control, 173-178

- and five steps for
 - yielding/accepting mode of control, 174, 178-181
- Attentional training, 85
- Attitudes, change in, 143
- Autonomic nervous system, control over, 106
- Autonomous self, 63
- Autonomy, 29
 - mental health and, 66
- Autonomy training, 96
- Awareness of feelings, 51. See also Awareness training
- Awareness training
 - body scan and, 187-188
 - mental scan and, 188-189

- Back pain, preventive health care case study and, 252-254
- Balance, in modes of control, 87-88, 201-203
- "Balance, The" (Astin), 109
- Balanced relationships, 111, 112, 121-127
 - acceptance and change in, 122
 - optimal control, intimacy, sexuality, and, 124-127
- Balance theories, 15
- Barriers to control, 215-216
- Behavior(s)
 - biological and environmental influences on, 30-32
 - control stories and, 157
 - health and, 93, 99-100
 - predictability of, 139
 - therapeutic strategies for controlling, 109
- Behavioral approach, 4, 11-12. See also Cognitive/behavioral approach
 - assertiveness training and, 146-147
 - clinical assessment and, 138
 - drug therapy compared with, 142-143
 - personal responsibility and, 139-140
 - responsibility and, 141
 - standardized techniques of, 144
 - view of relationship in, 135
- Behavioral change, 143
- Behavioral control, 171
 - self-control, 170
- Behavioral genetics, 28
- Behaviorism, radical, 16, 32
- Beliefs. See also Self-efficacy
 - change in, 143
 - as control stories, 161
 - in efficacy, 176-177
 - ethical considerations in challenging, 147-149
 - self-control and, 76-78
 - sense of control and, 24
- Bhagavad Gita, 87, 88
- Biofeedback techniques, 106, 107, 143, 170
- Biological determinism, 16
- Biological discrimination, 71
- Biological view of control, 9, 32, 139
- Biology. See also Body
 - choices and, 86
 - desire for control and, 68
 - impact of, 85
 - influence over controls, 97-98
- Biopsychosocial influences over control, 27-28, 32
- Biopsychosocial models of control, 16-17
- Body. See also Biology
 - controls over, 106-109
 - feelings about, 97-98
 - limits on voluntary control of, 108
- Body awareness exercises. See Body/mind scan; Body scan; Mental scan

- Body/mind scan. See also Body scan;
 Mental scan
 back pain and, 252-254
- Body scan, 187-188
- Borderline personality disorders
 control and, 6, 59
 mental health control profiles
 and, 46
- Brain. See also Nervous system reality constructed by, 154, 155-157, 162
 SCI and, 38
 split-brain research and, 156
- Breathing. See Diaphragmatic
 breathing
- Buddhism, Four Noble Truths and
 self-control in, 76
- Bulimia nervosa, control and,
 59
- Cancer patients, 103-104
 control feelings of, 6, 7, 24, 91 coping with cancer and, 95
 health behaviors and, 93
 lifestyle control and, 96
 self- and other-control for, 105
 self-help treatments for, 98
- Cardiovascular disease. See also Cardiovascular risk; Diseases
 control issues and, 7
 feelings of control and, 91-92
 health behaviors and, 93
 lifestyle control and, 96
 overcontrol and, 98-99
 Type A individuals and, 99
- Cardiovascular risk. See also Cardiovascular disease control as psychosocial variable
 and, 44
 feelings of control and, 92
 profiles associated with, 45
- Careers, decisions about, 116
- Case studies
 of control and preventive health care, 242-257
 of couples therapy, 258-278
 of generalized anxiety disorder, 231-242
 of mental and physical health, 229-231
- Change. See also Assertive/change
 modes of control;
 Yielding/accepting modes of
 control
 assessing therapeutic, 53-54
 commitment to, 220
 self-statements to enhance efforts, 219-220
 strategies for, 171
 therapists' interventions and,
 141-142
 willingness to, 209-210
- Channeling desires, 77-78
- Chaos, control issues, society, and,
 283-284
- Children, acting on environment by,
 63
- Children of alcoholics. See Adult children of alcoholics
- China. See also Eastern traditions
 yin/yang concept in, 202
- Choice, 68, 86. See also Ability to choose; Conscious choice decision making and, 140-141
 freedom of, 13
 of mode of control, 212-214
 in nursing homes, 24
- Christianity. See also Religion
 self-control and, 77
- Chronic illnesses, 93
- Clarification
 of goals, 206-207
 of issues, 204-206
 of motivation, 214-220

- Client(s). See also Control stories
 affirmations for use by, 203 clarifying modes of control of, 207–210
 control dynamics of, 152–169 handouts for assertive and yielding modes, 197–203 needs for control in therapy
 session, 227–228
 needs of, in generalized anxiety disorder case study, 236 recognition of own control stories
 by, 162–165, 166, 168–169
 techniques for overcoming difficulties with, 204–228
- Client-centered therapy, 12, 133–134
- Client-therapist relationship,
 therapists' views of, 133–135
- Clinical depression, immune responsivity and, 93
- Clinical issues. See also Interventions; Systems theory; Therapists
 therapists' assessment of problem, 138–139
- Clinical judgments, role of, 54
- Clinical populations. See Client(s); Health; Interventions; Psychology
- Clinical treatment. See Interventions;
 Therapy
- Coding, of verbal samples, 59–60
- Coding agent and object of control,
 speech analysis and, 300–303
- Cognitive/behavioral approach, 18.
See also Behavioral approach developing competent and special
 self and, 63
 role of therapist and, 134
 to therapeutic treatment, 53
 for Type A individuals, 46
- Cognitive control, 171
- Cognitive mediation of emotional responses theory (Ellis), 86
- Cognitive reprogramming, 79
- Cognitive restructuring, 170
- Cognitive self-instruction, 171–172
 mode rehearsal and, 191
- Cognitive strategies, for controlling physical stressors and pain, 107
- Coherence, 15
- Collected Papers* (Freud), 73
- Commitment to change, 220
 enhancing, 230
 as step in gaining sense of control, 177, 180
- Communication, positive modes of
 control in, 270–272
- Communion, agency vs., 29
- Community, health effects of, 106
- Competence, 63
 construct of, 4, 34
 mental health and, 66–67
 neoanalytic perspective on, 4
 recognition of, 198
- Competent and special self, 62–64
 defending, 64
 developing, 63
- Competition, 69
- Complacency, 77
- Concentration, control of body and,
 107, 108
- Conditioning, repetition compulsion
 and, 160–161
- Conflict. See also Conflict management
 marital, 110, 258–264
- Conflict management, positive modes of control in, 270–272
- Confrontational therapy, 137
- Confucianism, self-control in, 76
- Conjoint therapy, unequal power
 and, 114
- Conscious choice, control as, 30–32

- Conscious defenses, 64
- Consciousness
 change in, 143
 choice and, 85, 86
 transpersonal psychology and,
 14
- Conscious will, 10
- Content analysis, of speech samples
 of patients entering therapy, 59–62
- Control. See also Agency of control; Assertive/change modes of
 control; Control profiles; Control theory; Desire for control; Gender and gender roles; Health; Integrative theory of control; Lack of control; Modes of control; Optimal control; Physical health; Sense of control; Yielding/accepting modes of control
 and abuse, in traditional relationships, 115–116
 achieving balanced, integrated,
 and optimal, 89
 attributions of situational factors
 and, 65
 over autonomic nervous system, 106 barriers/resistance to, 215–216
 battles over, in relationships, 118 biopsychosocial models of, 16–17
 changing partner's behavior and, 119–120
 client dynamics of, 152–169
 client's need for, in therapy
 session, 227–228
 coping with illness and, 94–95
 desire for, 25, 52
 four key components of, 39–45
 four-quadrant model of, 23
 freedom, responsibility, and, 140 and healthy lifestyles, 96–97
 and healthy relationships, 110–111
 higher and lower levels of, 25–27
 individual differences and, 27–32 intimacy enhanced by, 126–127 limitations of previous constructs, 34 and longevity, 96
 maximizing, 64–65
 measuring, 25, 37–39
 as mediator between stress and
 health, 95–96
 mental health, psychotherapy,
 and, 5
 mismatch in need for, 67–68 modes of, 22–23
 as motivating force, 21–25
 optimal, 26–27
 physical health mismatches with, 100–101
 and preventive health care case
 study, 242–257
 psychological health and, 59–62 and psychopathology, 6
 as reflex or conscious choice, 30–32
 from self and others, 105–106
 self-regulation and, 5
 sense of, 22
 six dimensions of, 51, 302–304
 strategies for, 26
 therapeutic schools and, 7–14
 therapist dynamics of, 131–151 therapist interventions with regard to physical health, 109
 unified theory of, 14–17, 20–35
- Control-based approach, 171. See also Control therapy; Interventions; Therapy
 control therapy and, 281–282
 couples therapy and, 258–278
 evolution and development of, 229–231

- relational interventions in couples therapy, 269–278
- research on, 282
- societal issues and, 282–284
- Control-based ethical considerations, 145–150
- Control-based therapeutic interventions
 - in couples therapy case study, 264–268
 - in generalized anxiety disorder case study, 238–241
- Control Content Analysis Scale, 59–69
- Control dynamics and orientation, of therapist, 131–151
- Control inventory. See Inventory; Shapiro Control Inventory (SCI)
- Control mode rehearsal, 177, 191–194
- Control motivation, in balanced relationship, 123–124
- Control profiles, 103. See also At-risk profiles; Case studies; Normal control profiles
 - cardiovascular risk and, 44–46
 - comparison of profiles of depression and generalized anxiety, 47–49
 - control-based model of healthy relationships and, 111
 - control-enhancing strategies for, 171
 - control history and, 242
 - in couples therapy case study, 259–260
 - development of, 36–54
 - of females within model of healthy relationships, 111, 112
 - in generalized anxiety disorder case study, 234–235
 - of males within model of healthy relationships, 111, 112
 - mental health, 46–49
 - normal, 62–65
 - of patients at cardiovascular risk, 44–46
 - in preventive health care case study, 244
 - in relationships, 110
 - suboptimal, 57–62
- Control-related interventions, individual-specific matching of, 46
- Control-related issues
 - relationship as teacher of control lessons, 276–277
 - response styles and, 51
- Control stories, 39
 - client insight into, 166–167
 - client recognition of own, 163–165, 166, 168–169
 - in couples therapy, 260–261, 269–270
 - difficulties in recognizing, 163
 - about divorce, 154–155
 - editing and rewriting, 165–169
 - examining, based on prior experiences, 210–212
 - from family dynamics, 158–159
 - in generalized anxiety disorder case study, 237–238
 - from laissez-faire, withdrawn families, 160
 - nature and sources of, 153–161
 - parents as sources of, 157–158
 - in preventive health care case study, 250–251
 - problems with, 161–165
 - resistances to examining, 164–165
 - thematic, 155
- Control strategies. See also Strategies interactive systems theory model of, 131–133
 - therapeutic techniques and, 143–144

- Control theory. See also Unified theory of control; Integrative theory of control mind-body studies and, 4-7 overview of, 3-19
- Control therapy, 281-282. See also Interventions; Therapy compared with other approaches, 282
- Coping, 15, 22, 90. See also Physical health flexible, 46, 102-104, 108
 with illness, 94-95
- Coping efficacy, 143
- Cosmic significance, 17, 34
 spiritual other and, 105
- Countertransference, 135
 in therapeutic encounter, 136-137
- Couples. See Couples therapy case study; Healthy relationships; Intimacy
- Couples therapy case study, 258-278
 control-based relational interventions in, 269-278
 control profile in, 259-260
 control stories in, 260-261
 goal-setting in, 263
 individual control-based therapeutic interventions in, 264-268 motivation for change and self-efficacy beliefs in, 263-264 problem presentation and, 258-259
 self-observation in, 261-263
- Covi Anxiety Scale, 234
- Cues
 internal states as, 270
 of positive yielding, 200 stress as, 238
 visualization and, 198
- Culture. See also Eastern traditions; Environment; Western traditions choices and, 86, 214
 control behavior and, 28
 control stories and, 157
 flexible coping and, 102
 impact of, 85
- Daydreaming, 200
- Death, as loss of control, 17, 34
- Decisional control, 171
- Decision making
 choice and, 140-141, 213-214
 control over medical, 101
- Defenses, 71-72, 134, 138
 developing competent and special self and, 64
 sense of control and, 69
 of therapists, 149-150
- Defensive strategies, 84
- Deficiency, identifying dimensions of, 84
- Delay of gratification, 12, 76
- Denial, 69, 84
- Denial of Death, The* (Becker), 17
- Dependent personality disorder, in DSM-IV, 63
- Depersonalization disorder, 59
- Depressed and Generalized Anxiety Profiles, 48, 49
- Depression
 clinical, 93
 control and, 6
 gaining control and, 65
 health and, 91-92
 immune responsivity and, 92
 mental health control profiles and, 46
 SCI control profiles for, 47-49
 studies of patients with, 229
- Desire for control, 25, 31, 52
 channeling, 77-78

- client control dynamics and, 152
 decreasing, 46
 increasing, 77
 limitations of normal control
 profiles and, 68–69
 moving from suboptimal to
 optimal control, 75
 negative aspect of, 68–69
 optimal control and, 74–78
 recognizing, 267
 shift in, during couples therapy, 275–276
 as step in gaining sense of control, 173–175, 178–179
- Desire-for-control scale, of SCI, 43
- Desire for Control Scale (Burger and Cooper), 99
- Determinism. See Biological
 determinism
- Developmental issues, 21, 28–30
- Developmental phases, modes of
 control in, 46
- Diabetes, lifestyle control and, 96
- Diagnostic and Statistical Manual (DSM)*. See DSM (Diagnostic and Statistical Manual)
- Dialogues, among “subpersonalities,” 208–209
- Diaphragmatic breathing, 177, 187, 238
 in mental scan, 188–189
 mode rehearsal and, 191–192
- DID. See Dissociative identity disorder (DID)
- Diet industry, 97
- Differentiation vs. integration, 29
- Dimensions of control, speech analysis and, 302–304
- Discipline. See also Self-discipline
 appropriate, 51
- Discrimination, control through,
 71
- Diseases. See also Health; Physical health; specific diseases adaptation to physical, 6
 coping with illness and, 94–95
 infectious, 93
 psychological adaptation to, 6
- Dissociative identity disorder (DID), 59
- Divorce
 control battles in, 120
 control stories and, 154–155
- Doctors. See Cancer patients; Health; Patients; Physical health
- Domains, developing clarity about,
 197
- Domain-specific sense of control. See also Specific domain and general domain sense of
 control, 50
 loss of control and, 61
 self-observation and, 185
- Dominance
 genetics and, 28
 in relationships, 118
- Dominant marriage partners,
 attitudes of, 115
- Dream interpretation, 266–267
- Drugs. See Substance dependence
- Drug therapy, compared with
 behavioral approach, 142–143
- DSM (Diagnostic and Statistical Manual)*. See also DSM-III-R; DSM-IV; DSM populations
 dyscontrol and, 58–59
 positive psychological health and, 73
 SCI development and, 39
 DSM-III-R, generalized anxiety disorder and, 231–234
 DSM-IV
 dependent personality disorder
 in, 63
 desire for control and, 74

- DSM-IV (Continued)*
 dissociative identity disorder (DID) in, 59
 dyscontrol in, 6, 58–59
 generalized anxiety disorder and, 231–234
 impulse-control disorders in, 59
 on obsessive-compulsive personality disorder, 59
- DSM* populations, mental health control profiles of, 46–49
- Dyscontrol, 34
 continuum of, 58
DSM and, 58–59
DSM-IV and, 6
 equating removal with mental
 health, 65–66
 mental illness and, 57–58
 neoanalytic perspective on, 4
- Eastern traditions. See also Meditation
 control myths in, 195–196
 mindfulness-meditation from, 183
 modes of control and, 33
 self-awareness and, 70
 yin/yang concept in, 79, 201–202
- Eating disorders, 97. See also Anorexia nervosa
 control and, 6, 59, 87
 mental health control profiles
 and, 46
- Efficacy beliefs
 past success for enhancing, 225–226
 as step in gaining sense of control, 176–177
- Effort, appropriate, 51
- Ego
 self-actualizing, 13
 transpersonal psychology and, 14
- Ego analysis, 10
- Elderly. See Age and aging
- Emotions. See also Feelings acknowledgment of, 168–169
- Enchiridion (Epictetus), 196
- Enthusiasm, 77
- Environment
 behavioral tradition and, 11, 32
 beliefs in control over, 176–177 biological adaptation and control over, 28
 cognitive-developmental psychologists and, 63
 control-enhancing options in, 24 control over, 85
 differentiating self from, 166
 drive for control over, 33
- Environmental change, 143
- Epiphenomena, psychology as, 4
- Ethical considerations
 assertiveness training and,
 146–147
 in challenging client beliefs and goals, 147–149
 control-based, 145–150
 coverage by health maintenance organization, 145
 responsibility assessment and,
 145–146
 in treating women's issues, 146
- Ethnic discrimination, 71
- Evaluation, of clinical efficacy, 132
- Evolution, control and, 5
- Evolutionary biology, desire for
 control and, 68
- Executive Stress and Wellness Center (University of California, Irvine), 220, 242
- "Exile," Buber on, 124
- Existential approach, 13. See also Humanistic/existential approach
 role of relationship in therapy
 and, 134
 in therapeutic intervention, 135
- Existential will, 16
- Explicit theory, use of, 3–4

- External attribution, 84
- External locus of control. See Internal/external self-control
- Families
control stories from dynamics of, 158–159
laissez-faire, withdrawn, 160
parents as source of control stories and, 157–158
- Fears of negative quadrants, 208
in preventive health care case
study, 249
- Feedback model, 132
- Feelings. See also Emotions awareness of, 50
responsibility for, 89
- Females. See Feminine; Femininity;
Gender and gender roles;
Women
- Feminine, Jung on, 122
- Femininity, concept of, 117
- Fenfluramine, compared with
behavioral approach, 142
- "Fighting spirit," coping with illness
and, 95
- Five-step process for gaining sense of control, 173–182. See also Techniques
- Flexible coping, 46, 102–104, 108
- Focus on sensations, control of body
and, 107
- Follow-up
in couples therapy case study, 277–278
in generalized anxiety disorder
case study, 241–242
- Forgiveness, 89
- Four-quadrant model of control, 23.
See also specific issues
- Frame of reference, therapist response to client's, 147–148
- Free association, 138
- Free choice, 85. See also Choice; Free will
- Freedom
of choice, 13
control, responsibility, and, 140 loss of, and control, 25
- Freedom reflex, 11
- Freedom Reflex Scale, 227, 228
- Free will, 68, 86. See also Choice; Free choice
societal control issues and, 283
- Freudian analysis, 134
- Freudian defenses, 69
- Freudian emphasis, on countertransference, 135st
- Freudian psychoanalysis, 9–10
- Functional analysis, 183
- Functioning, optimal control, physical health, and, 101–109
- Gender and gender roles, 116–120
control issues and, 30, 283
decisions about, 116
discrimination and, 71
ethical issues and, 146–147
modes of control and stereotypes
by, 81
in traditional relationships, 113
- General domain, self-observation
and, 184
- General domain information, modes
of control scales and, 51
- General domain sense of control, 40–41
and domain-specific sense of
control, 50
loss of control and, 170
measuring, 39–41
- General-domain sense of control
scores, mental health control
profiles and, 47
- Generalized anxiety
control and, 74

- Generalized anxiety (Continued)
 mental health control profiles
 and, 46
 SCI control profiles for, 47-49
- Generalized anxiety disorder case
 study, 231-242
 client needs in, 236 control-based interventions in, 238-241
 control profile for, 234-235 control story and control dynamics in, 237-238 motivation-to-change dynamics
 in, 236
 problem presentation for, 234
 self-efficacy beliefs in, 237
 self-observation in, 235-236
 termination and follow-up in, 241-242
 therapist relationship in, 241
- Genetic influences, on control, 27-28, 97-98
- Goals. See also Goal-setting; Techniques
 clarifying, 206-207, 230
 commitment to, 197-198, 221
 of control, 85-86
 ethical considerations in challenging client's, 147-149
 form for setting, 243
 role in therapeutic success, 177-178
 setting and adjusting, 202
 statement of, 214
 techniques for meeting clients', 170-173
- Goal-setting, 51
 in couples therapy case study, 263
 in preventive health care case
 study, 246, 247
 self-evaluation and, 189-191
- God, 105. See also Beliefs; Religion
- Gratification, delay of, 12, 76
- Greeks, personal control and, 8
- "Ground of Being" (Kass), 105
- Guided imagery, 170, 204-206
- Habits, awareness of, 85
- Habituation, to stressors, 69-70
- Hamilton Anxiety Scale, 234
- Hardiness, 15
- HDL level, 45
- Health. See also Body; Control
 profiles; Health behaviors;
 Mental illness; Physical health; Psychological health; Stress benefits of normal control on, 94-97
 control-based model of psychological, 57
 control benefits for, 5 control over body and, 106-109 effects of control from self and others on, 105-106
 effects of prayer on, 105-106 feelings about bodies, 97-98
 lifestyles and, 96-97
 limits of personal control over, 97-98
 overcontrol and, 98-99
 potential consequences of control
 and, 109
 role of control in, 64
 suboptimal control and, 25-26, 91-92
- Health and Human Services, Department of, on relationship between health and behavior, 93
- Health behaviors changes in, 93
 lack of control and, 93
 overcontrol and, 99-100
 therapeutic strategies for controlling, 109

- Health care decisions, therapeutic strategies for controlling, 109
- Health care provider. See also Therapists responsibility of, 139–140
- Health locus of control, 25, 34
- Health maintenance organizations, sessions covered by, 145
- Healthy relationships
control and, 110–111
three-stage model of, 111, 112
traditional stage of, 111, 112, 113–116
- Heart disease. See Cardiovascular disease
- Helplessness, 58. See also Passivity
decreasing feelings of, 46
learned, 12, 47
- Hemispheres of brain, 156
- "Heroic stance," 63
- Hetero-hypnosis, 144–145
- Heterosexual intimacy, 111
- Hierarchical model of control, 123, 125–126
- Higher power. See Religion
- Hinduism. See also Religion
self-control in, 76
- Homeostatic model
of control and mental health, 72
of sense of control, 65
- Homosexual intimacy, 111
- Hopelessness, 58
- Hostility. See also Anger
heart disease and, 96
- Humanistic approach, 12–13. See also Humanistic/existential approach attribution of responsibility by, 140
- Humanistic/existential approach, 12–13, 18
developing competent and special self and, 63
to therapeutic treatment, 53
- Hypertension, lifestyle control and, 96
- Hypnosis, 143, 170
self- and hetero-, 144–145
- Identifying issues, 204–206
- Idiographic control stories, SCI and, 54
- Id psychology, 9–10, 134, 138
- IELCS. See Internal External Locus of Control Scale
- Illness. See also Health; Physical health; specific diseases chronic, 93
control in response to, 109 coping with, 94–95
- Illusory control, 64, 69
- Imagery. See also Guided imagery control of body and, 107
mode rehearsal and, 191
positive yielding and, 201
- Imagination, control of body and, 108
- Immune function depression and, 92
stress and, 92, 101
- Implicit theory, use of, 3–4
- Impulse control, DSM categories and, 59
- Impulse-control disorders, in DSM-IV, 59
- Inclusion, 29
- Independence vs. dependence, 29
- Individual control-based therapeutic interventions, in couples therapy case study, 264–268
- Individual differences, control and, 27–32
- Individual responsibility. See Responsibility
- Individual-specific matchings, of control-related interventions, 46

- Individuation, 63
 Infectious diseases, 93
 Insecurity, depression and, 49
 Insight, 70, 183
 Insomnia, studies of patients with, 229
 Institutional self, 29
 Instrumental control, 68
 Instrumental coping, 22–23
 Instrumentation, 144
 Integrated mode of control, self and other agency in, 122–123
 Integration of masculine and feminine, 121–122 Integrative theory of control advantages of, 32–35
 compared with previous constructs, 34
 postulates of, 31, 32
 Interaction, therapist control dynamics, orientation, and, 131–151
 Interactive systems theory model of control strategies, 131–133
 Interdependent model of control, 126
 Internal External Locus of Control Scale, 37–38, 39–40, 41
 Internal/external self-control, 13, 34
 medication vs. self-regulation and, 143
 Internal locus of control, mental health and, 66
 Internal world, control over, 87 Interpersonal domain comparisons with others and, 70–71
 feelings of loss of control in, 61, 63
 Interpersonal relationships, control issues and, 283
 Interventions. See also Therapy
 in couples therapy case study, 264–268
 emphasizing assertive/change modes of control, 141–142 existential approach in, 135
 in generalized anxiety disorder case study, 238–241
 for management of anger, 264–267
 model of 8- to 12-week control-based training intervention, 232–234
 and physical health, 109
 relational, in couples therapy, 269–278 teaching in, 133
 for type A individuals, 46
 Interview formats
 and five steps for gaining sense of control, 173–182
 self-efficacy beliefs and, 225–226
 semistructured control-based interview, 296–297
 Intimacy. See also Healthy relationships androgynous loving and, 116–117
 in balanced relationship, 124–127
 control as enhancement of, 126–127 control as part of, 110–111 control motivation and, 123–124 distance and, 119
 homosexual, 111
 self as agency of control and, 67
 Inventory. See also Shapiro Control Inventory (SCI)
 of active and yielding modes of control, 23 overview template of control-based approach to clinical treatment, 230–231 Islam. See also Religion
 self-control in, 76
 Issues, identifying and clarifying, 204–206

- Item-level analysis of sense of control scales, 51
- Japan. See Eastern traditions
- Judeo-Christian tradition. See also Religion
self-control in, 77
- Kama Sutra, 127
- Lack of control
disease and, 91-92
and health behaviors, 93
and physiological function, 92
- Learned helplessness, 12, 34, 47, 92
- Left ventricular hypertrophy, 45
- Letting-go mode of control, 179-180, 200
therapist encouragement and, 218-219
- Life-cycle issues, control-related, 21, 28
- Lifestyle, healthy, 96-97
- Lifestyle modification, case study of, 242-257
- Limits
of personal control, 97-101
therapist encouragement and, 218-219
- Locus of control, 12. See also Agency of control; Internal External Locus of Control Scale
health, 25, 34
matching of therapeutic techniques to, 144-145 personality trait for, 28
physiological function and, 92
Wallstons' scale of, 38
- Logotherapy, 17
- Longevity, control and, 96
- Long term goals, 191. See also Goals
- Loss of control. See also Control; Dyscontrol domains where individuals experienced, 61
general domain vs. specific domain areas of, 170
- Low general-domain positive sense of control, 49
- Low overall specific domain sense of control, 49
- Males. See Gender and gender roles; Masculine; Men
- Manic depression, studies of patients with, 229
- Marital conflict, 110
- Marital therapy
case study of couples therapy, 258-278
studies of patients with, 229
- Marriage. See Couples therapy case study; Healthy relationships; Marital conflict
- Masculine. See also Couples therapy case study; Gender and gender roles; Men Jung on, 122
- Mastery, 22
personal, 63
- Mastery model of control, 22
- Matching approach between control personality variables and individual differences, 46, 102 control profiles and control-enhancing strategies, 171 optimal control and matching strategy to person, 102
in selecting therapeutic techniques, 143-144
teaching of techniques and, 144-145, 227-228

- Matching approach (Continued) teaching style to client, 231 techniques to client, 231
- Material world, control over, 108
- Meaning. See also Reality; Will to meaning brain/mind construction of, 156–157
 Frankl's search for, 33–34
- Measurement of control, 37–39. See also Scales; Shapiro Control Inventory (SCI)
 four key components of, 39–44
- Medical conditions. See Diseases; Health; Physical health
- Medical coping questionnaire, 102
- Medication. See also Drug therapy biological approach and, 139
- Meditation, 46, 144, 170, 238
 control of body and, 107
 in generalized anxiety disorder case study, 241
 mental scan and, 188–189
- Men. See also Couples therapy case study; Gender and gender roles; Healthy relationships; Transitional relationships
 in balanced relationships, 121–127
 healthy interpersonal relations and, 110–111, 112
 modes of control by, 81
 profile of abusive, 115
 in traditional relationships, 113–116
 in transitional relationships, 116–120
- Mental cues, 192
- Mental disorders, dyscontrol and, 58–59
- Mental health. See Case studies; Mental health control profiles; Mental illness; Psychological health
- Mental health control profiles, 46–49
- Mental health referrals, marital conflict and, 110
- Mental illness
 dyscontrol and, 57–58
 lack of control equated with, 65–66
- Mental scan, 188–189
- MHLCS. See Multidimensional Health Locus of Control Scales (MHLCS)
- Microlinguistic analysis. See also Speech speech scoring and, 298
- MID. See Dissociative identity disorder (DID)
- Migraine headaches, control of, 107
- Mind, reality constructed by, 154, 155–157, 163
- Mind-body studies, 4–7
- Mindful awareness, control of body and, 107
- Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory (MMPI), 39
- Mistakes, learning from, 197
- MMPI. See Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory (MMPI)
- Mode-choice exercise technique, 212–213
- Modeling, 185
- Models. See also specific models control-based model of healthy relationships, 111 control-based model of psychological health, 57 of 8- to 12-week control-based training intervention, 232–234 feedback, 132
 four-quadrant model of control, 23
 hierarchical model of control, 123
 homeostatic model of control, 65, 72

- interactive systems theory model
 - of control strategies, 131–133
- interdependent model of control, 126
- mastery model of control, 22
- of optimal control, 73–74
- Seligman's yoked experimental model, 95–96
- three-stage control-based model of relationship, 111, 112
- uni-biopsychosocial models of control, 16
- Mode rehearsal, 191–194
- Mode satisfaction level, 52
- Modes of control, 22–23, 51. See also
 - Assertive/change modes of control; Shapiro Control Inventory (SCI);
 - Yielding/accepting modes of control
- acknowledging four, 80–81
- balance and integration among positive modes, 79–80
- in balanced relationships, 121–122
- balance in, 201–203
- clarifying client goals and, 207–210
- client beliefs about, 208
- client control dynamics and, 152
- clinical examples of combining, 181–182
- from dyadic perspective, 269–270
- exploring options for, 212–213
- four-quadrant model of, 42–43
- gender-based, in transitional relationship, 116–120
- identifying, in couples therapy, 268
- integrating, 80–81, 196–197
- integrating positive, 201–203
- limitations of normal control profiles and, 67–68
- motivation for control-related change and, 52–53
- moving from suboptimal to optimal control, 75
- optimal control and, 78–81
- SCI measurement of, 37
- sex, affection, and, 272–276
- skills of both positive models, 78–79
- speech analysis and, 303
- techniques for developing assertive and yielding, 170–203
- in traditional relationship, 113–114
- Monitoring. See Self-monitoring
- Monks. See Tibetan monks
- Mood, control benefits for, 5
- Morbidity
 - feelings of control and, 95
 - sense of control and, 50
- Mores. See Culture
- Mortality, sense of control and, 50
- Motivation
 - clarifying and enhancing, 214–220, 230
 - for control, 123–124
 - exploring barriers/resistance to gaining control, 215–216
 - and therapist encouragement, 217–219
 - of therapists, 149–150
 - and visualizing success, 216–217
- Motivation for change, 52–53, 236
 - in couples therapy case study, 263–264
 - desire for control and, 52
 - mode satisfaction level and, 52
 - parameter satisfaction level and, 53
 - parameters of concern by mode of choice, 52
- Motivation for control, 21–25, 68
 - power as, 99
 - SCI measurement of, 37, 43–44

- Multidimensional control profile.
See also Shapiro Control Inventory (SCI)
 SCI as, 44, 54
- Multidimensional Health Locus of Control Scales (MHLCS), 38, 39, 40
- Multiple-domain assessment, 41
- Music-assisted guided imagery, 107
- My Name is Asher Lev* (Potok), 89
- Myths. See also Zen parable of arrival, 88
 of journey, 88
 teaching modes of control with, 194–196
- Narratives. See also Control stories
 SCI and, 54
- National Institutes of Health (NIH), 22
- Neediness, interpersonal domain and, 63
- Needs
 self vs. partner's, 118–119
 and wants, 76
- Negative assertive control, 211
- Negative assertive overcontrol
 decreasing, 46
 health behaviors and, 99–100
- Negative assertive quadrant, of SCI, 43
- Negative quadrants, reactions to, 208
- Negative sense of control scale, 40.
See also Sense of control
- Negative yielding, 23, 78–79, 80
 decreasing feelings of, 46
- Negative yielding control, 211
- Negative yielding quadrant, of SCI, 43
- Negative yielding scale, 46
- Neoanalysis, competence and, 63
- Neoanalytic perspectives, on competence and dyscontrol, 4
- Neo-Freudians, 10–11
- Nervous system. See also Brain control over autonomic, 106
- Neurobiological correlates, for psychological theories, 38
- Neurology, control over autonomic nervous system in, 106
- Neurosis, Freud and, 73
- Nondirective therapy, 137
- Nonviolent satyagraha (truth force), 83
- Normal control, 74. See also Optimal control belief in ability to exercise control and, 84 effects on physical health of
 problems with, 97–101
 health and, 90
 health-enhancing effects of, 94–97
 strategies for, 26, 64–65
- Normal control profiles, 62–65
 problems with, 65–71
- Nursing homes. See also Age and aging choices in, 24
 control and longevity in, 96
- Object of control, 44
 SCCAS coding agent and, 300–302
- Object relations approach, 10
 developing competent and special self and, 63
- Observation. See Self-observation
- Obsessive-compulsive disorder
 control and, 74
 drug vs. behavior therapy in, 142
DSM-IV on, 59
- Odysseus (story of), 83–84
- Omni determinism, 16
- Oncology. See Cancer patients

- Opening heart to others, 89
- Optimal control, 26–27, 71
 achieving, 89
 agency of control and, 81–84
 in balanced relationship, 124–127
 desire for control and, 74–78
 health, well-being, and, 90, 101–109
 matching strategy to person, 102 models of, 73–74
 modes of control and, 78–81
 moving toward, 73–74
 sense of control and, 84–89
- Optimism, 15, 34, 64, 65
 mental health and, 66
- Order, sense of control and, 70
- Osteoporosis, lifestyle control and,
 96
- Other
 as agent of control, 44
 effects on health of control by, 105–106
 integration with self, 83–84
 mode of control and, 122–123
 sense of control from, 82–83
 speech analysis and, 305
- Other-directed control, 13
- “Ought,” investigating, 86
- Out-of-control feelings, 62. See also Dyscontrol; Letting-go mode of control; Sense of control
- Outsight, 70, 183
- Overcontrol, 23, 43
 control stories and, 162
 and health behaviors, 99–100
 health outcomes of, 98–99
- Overcontrolling scale, 45–46
- Pain, control over, 106–107
- Palliative coping, 22–23
- Panic attack, control and, 6
- Panic attack disorders, mental health control profiles and, 46
- Paper-and-pencil tests, SCI as, 54
- Parables. See Myths; Zen parable
- Parameter satisfaction level, 52
- Parameters of concern, by mode of choice, 53
- Parameter-specific appraisal, 50
- Parents. See also Families
 mixed messages and styles from, 160–161
 as source of control stories, 157
- Passive control, bias against, 22–23
- Passivity, 79
 aggressiveness and, 117
 control stories and, 162
 dependent personality disorder
 and, 63
 among women in traditional
 relationships, 113, 114
- Path analysis, 143
- Patients. See also Cancer patients; Nursing homes
 content analysis of patients
 entering therapy, 59–62
 control profile of, 36–54
- Perceived control, 64–65
- Perception, brain/mind story construction and, 155–157
- Personal control, limits of, 97–101
- Personality, control and, 27–28
- Personality disorders, impulse
 control and, 59
- Personality type. See also Control profiles; Type A individuals cancer and, 91
- Personal mastery, 63. See also
 Mastery
- Personal responsibility. See also Responsibility
 therapists’ perspectives on,
 139–140

- Personal self. See also Self
feelings of loss of control in, 61
- PET. See Positron emission tomography
- Pharmacology. See Drug therapy
- Philosophical views of control, 7, 8-9
- Philosophy. See also Eastern
traditions;
Humanistic/existential
approach; Philosophical views of control; Western traditions psychology as, 4
- Phobia, dyscontrol and, 58
- Physical appearances, obsession about, 97
- Physical cues, 192
- Physical disease. See Diseases;
Health
- Physical health. See also Case studies; Health; Physical illness
control and, 6-7, 90
control as psychosocial variable
and, 45
coping, prevention, wellness, and, 90
effects of problems with normal control strategies on, 97-101
mismatches with control, 100-101
optimal control, functioning, and, 101-109
therapeutic interventions and,
109
- Physical illness, responsibility for,
98
- Physical stressors, controlling, 107
- Physiological function, lack of
control and, 92
- Piagetian theory, 29
- Pirke Avot*, 77
- Planet and cosmos domain,
measuring sense of control in,
39-41
- Positive assertive mode of control, 211-212. See also Assertive/change modes of
control; Positive modes of control; Positive yielding mode
of control
autonomy training and, 96
coping with illness and, 95
in generalized anxiety disorder
case study, 239-240
and positive yielding/accepting strategies, 108
positive yielding and, 87-88
strategies and, 80
therapist encouragement and, 217-218
training in, 268
- Positive assertive quadrant, of SCI, 42
- Positive modes of control
balance and integration among, 79-80
in conflict management and communication, 270-272
resistances to, 208-209
- Positive sense of control scale, 40.
See also Sense of control
- Positive yielding, in generalized anxiety disorder case study, 239-240
- Positive yielding/accepting quadrant, of SCI, 42
- Positive yielding/accepting strategies, positive assertive
control and, 108
- Positive yielding mode of control, 23, 79, 80, 212, 219. See also Positive assertive mode of control; Positive modes of control; Yielding/accepting
modes of control
positive assertive mode of control
and, 87-88
sense of control and, 83

- Positron emission tomography, 38
- Power, 15
 of doctor in control, 105
 impact on marriage partners, 114-115
 sex and, 125
 in traditional relationships, 113
 unequal, in traditional relationships, 114-115
 of women, 117
- Powerlessness. See also Helplessness; Passivity
 health and, 91
- Power motivation, 99
- Prana*, 17
- Prayer, health effects of, 105-106
- Precision Nirvana* (Shapiro), 289
- Predictability of behavior, 139
- Preoperational child, 29
- Pretherapy strategies, of therapists, 150
- Prevention, 90, 101. See also Physical health; Preventive health care
 case study
- Preventive health care case study, 242-257
 anxiety-provoking situations/fears in, 249
 back pain and body mind scan, 252-254
 control dynamics, client professional situation, and therapeutic relationship in, 251-252
 control issues in other domains in, 246-247
 control profile in, 244
 control stories and, 250-251
 follow-up in, 256
 goal of therapy, 242-244
 goal-setting in, 247, 248
 interventions in, 249-250
 problem presentation in, 242 renewed efforts in, 254-256
 self-efficacy beliefs in, 244-245
 self-observation and first four weeks of intervention in, 245-246
 termination in, 256
- Primary control, 22
- Problem-focused instrumental coping, 22
- Problem presentation, in couples therapy case study, 258-259
- Profiles. See Control profiles
- Projection, 69
- Projection hypothesis, of Freud, 62
- Projective techniques, 138
- Prometheus' Way of Change; 194-195
- Psychoanalysis, 9-11
- Psychodynamic approach, to therapeutic treatment, 53
- Psychodynamic therapy, 141
- Psychological construct sense of control, physical health status
 and, 50
- Psychological health, 5. See also
 Health
 control as goal of therapy and, 62-65
 control-based model of, 57
 control feelings and, 26
 lack of control and, 59-62
 moving toward optimal control
 and, 73-74
 removing dyscontrol and, 65, 66
- Psychological mainstream, control, positive health, and, 64
- Psychology, Western, 22-23
Psychology of Self-Control, The (Shapiro), 289
- Psychopathology, 6
 loss of control and, 60
 "Psychopathology of the average," 73

- Psychosocial variables, control as, 44-46
- Psychotherapy, 5. See also
Interventions; Therapeutic schools; Therapists; Therapy control issues and, 58
SCI scales used in assessment and, 49-54
"talk" in, 134
- Push/pull response to control, 163
- Quadrants. See Control; Four-quadrant model of control
- Racial discrimination, 71
- Radical behaviorism, 16
- Raskin Depression Scale, 234
- Rational choice, societal control issues and, 283
- Rationalization, 69
- RCCP. See Recurrent Coronary Prevention Project (RCCP) study
- Reactance theory, 15
- Reality, brain/mind construction of, 154, 155-157, 163
- Reciprocal biopsychosocial models of control, 16
- Recognition of control, as step in gaining sense of control, 177-178
- Recurrent Coronary Prevention Project (RCCP) study, 104
- Reflex, control as, 30-32
- (Re)gaining control, 71
- Reinforcement theory, desire for control and, 68
- Relational issues, in couples therapy, 269-278
- Relationship(s). See also Balanced relationships; Relational issues; Therapists; Traditional relationships; Transitional relationships control and healthy, 110-111
as critical variable, 134
as teacher of control lessons, 276-277
in therapeutic encounter, 131
therapists' views of client-therapist, 133-135
views of, 135-136
- Relaxation, 238. See also Guided imagery; Stress diaphragmatic breathing and, 187
responsibility and, 17
- Relaxation techniques, 143-144
- Relaxation training, 46
- Religion. See also specific religions balancing self-interest with needs of others, 88-89
control issues and, 283
perennial wisdom and, 86-87
sense of control and, 24, 51
sense of control from spiritual other, 105
- Repetition compulsion, 160-161
- Resistance to control, 215-216
- Response-contingent positive reinforcement, 47
- Responsibility, 51
and control, 140, 222-223
ethical considerations in assessing, 145-146
external attributions of, 64-65, 71
for feelings, 89
reliance on self for control and, 82-83
as step in gaining sense of control, 175-176, 179
therapeutic intervention and, 148-149
therapists' views of, 139-141
of women, 117
- RET theory (Ellis), 86
- Right to control, 222-223
as step in gaining sense of control, 175-176, 179
- Rogerian client-centered therapy, 133-134, 135-136

- Roles, gender, 30, 116–120
- Root issue, finding, 240
- Rorschach Inkblot Test, 138
- external vignettes and, 166–167
- Rotter's Internal External Locus of Control Scale. See Internal External Locus of Control Scale
- Same sex intimacy, 111
- Samurai parable. See Zen parable
- Scaled inventory, 23
- Scales. See also Sense of control;
- Shapiro Control Inventory (SCI)
- Rotter's Locus of Control, 37–38, 39–40
- Wallstons' Multidimensional Health Locus of Control Scales (MHLCS), 38, 39, 40
- Scans. See Body/mind scan; Body scan; Mental scan
- SCCAS. See Shapiro Control Content Analysis Scale (SCCAS)
- SCI. See Shapiro Control Inventory (SCI)
- SCI control profile, 103. See also Control profiles
- Secondary gains, 214
- Selective reinforcement techniques, 106
- Self
- as agent of control, 29, 30, 44, 66–67
- competent and special, 62–64
- developmental factors and, 29
- differentiating from environment, 166
- feelings of loss of control in, 61
- integration with other agency, 83–84
- mode of control and, 122–123
- needs of, vs. partner, 118–119
- over-reliance on, 82–83
- sense of control from, 82–83
- speech analysis and, 304
- Self-acceptance, 199
- in generalized anxiety disorder case study, 239–240
- strategies in couples therapy, 266
- Self-actualizing ego, 13
- Self-agency, control stories and, 157
- Self-awareness, 70
- strategies for, 183
- Self-control
- appropriate direction of, 86
- behaviorial theorists and, 11–12
- behaviorist definitions of, 12
- construct of personal control and, 8–9
- control techniques and, 143–144
- effects on health, 105–106
- health behaviors and, 93
- healthy lifestyles and, 96–97
- six dimensions of, 302–304
- Self-discipline, 76–77
- Self-disclosure, 135
- Self-efficacy, 12, 34, 40, 63
- in couples therapy case study, 263–264
- enhancing, 225–226, 230
- in generalized anxiety disorder case study, 237
- mental health and, 66–67
- in preventive health care case study, 244–245
- Self-esteem, 63
- developing competent and special self and, 63
- loss of, 58
- Self-evaluation, and goal-setting, 183, 189–191
- Self-hypnosis, 144, 145
- Self-interest, 68
- Self-management contract, 222
- Self-modeling, 183
- of desired behavior, 192
- Self-monitoring, 185
- form for, 186

- Self-observation, 89, 183–186. See also Awareness training
 in couples therapy case study, 260–261
 for generalized anxiety disorder case study, 235–236
 in preventive health care case study, 245–246
- Self-regulation, 5
 and disregulation, 11
- Self-reliance, mental health and, 66
- Self-respect, 200
- Self-statements, to enhance change efforts, 219–220
- Self-understanding, opportunities for, 167
- Seligman's yoked experimental model, 95–96
- Semistructured control-based interview, 296–297
- Sensations, focusing on, 107
- Sense of control, 22. See also Domain-specific sense of control
 agency of control and, 50–51
 analysis of, 49
 assessing therapeutic change, 53
 balancing modes of, 87–88 beliefs and, 2
 client control dynamics and, 152
 current status of, 50 depression populations and, 47–49
 five-step process for facilitating, 173–182
 free choice and, 85
 Freudian defenses and, 69
 general anxiety populations and, 47–49
 general domain, 40
 general vs. specific domain, 170
 in healthy relationships, 111
 as independent variable, 50
 over internal world, 87
 item-level analysis of scales and, 51 levels of control and, 88–89
 limitations of normal control profiles and, 69–71
 measuring in general domain and specific domain, 39–41 modes of control scales and, 51 motivation for control-related change, 52–53
 moving from suboptimal to optimal control, 75
 optimal control and, 84–89
 problems with, 84–85
 religious traditions/perennial wisdom and, 86–87
 SCI measurement of, 36
 from self and other, 82–83
 specific domain, 40
 values and, 85–86
- Sense of control domain, for different populations, 47
- Separation, 63
 of self from environment, 166
- Serum cholesterol level, 45
- Serum glucose level, 45
- SES. See Socioeconomic status (SES)
SES-Health gradient, 91
- Sex, affection, control, and, 272–277
- Sexuality, in balanced relationship, 124–127
- Shapiro Control Content Analysis Scale (SCCAS), 298–308
- Shapiro Control Inventory (SCI), 36–37, 38–39, 282, 291–295
 assessing client control dynamic with, 153 assessing therapeutic change with, 53–54 client mode style, preference, and, 207–210

- clinician use of assessment material, 49–54
 dimensions of deficiency identified with, 84
 domain-specific sense of control
 and, 184
 intervention plan for couples therapy and, 264
 mental health control profiles
 and, 46–49
 motivation for control-related change measurements, 52–53 parameters within domains, 41 physical health control profiles
 and, 44
 printout of control profile, 47, 48
 self-efficacy beliefs and, 225, 227
 self-observation and, 183
 uses of, 54
 Sharing, limits to, 124
 Short term goals, 191. See also Goals;
 Goal-setting
 Single-domain scales, 40 Situational factors, feelings of
 control and, 65
 Situation-specific appraisal, 50
 Skills, 51
 as step in gaining sense of control, 177, 180
 trusting in, 198
 Skinner's functional analysis, 183
 Skin temperature, raising of, 107
 Smoking, as health behavior, 93
 Social learning approach, 4, 11
 developing competent and special
 self and, 63
 Social psychology, 18–19 Societal domain, feelings of loss of
 control in, 61
 Societal gender roles, modes of
 control and, 146–147
 Society, control-based approach
 and, 282–284
 Socioeconomic status (SES), and
 health, 91
 Space. See Intimacy
 Special self, 62–64
 Species of control, speech analysis
 and, 298–299, 300
 Specific domain sense of control,
 loss of control and, 170
 Speech
 content analysis of patients
 entering therapy, 59–62
 SCCAS and coding of, 298–308
 Spindrift Organization, health effects of prayer and, 106
 Spiritual other. See Other; Religion
 Split-brain research, 156
 State. See Specific domain
 Stories. See Control stories; Myths Strategies. See also Techniques
 behavioral change, 143
 for change, 171
 clinical use of control-related, 131–133
 for controlling physical stressors and pain, 107
 for coping with illness, 94–95
 defensive, 84
 environmental change, 143
 flexible coping as, 102–104
 for gaining control, 172
 health-enhancing effects of normal control, 94–97
 individual consciousness,
 attitude, and belief change, 143
 for maintaining normal sense of
 control, 64–65
 for managing anger and stress in couples therapy, 266
 matching with control profiles, 171
 for modes of control, 78–81
 pretherapy, of therapists, 150

- Stress. See also Diaphragmatic breathing; Relaxation active control and, 67–68
 body scan and, 187–188
 client desire for management of, 236
 control issues and, 49
 as cue, 238
 health and, 95–96
 immune function and, 92, 101
 interventions for management of, 264–267
 mental scan and, 188–189
 self as agency of control and, 67
 spiritual other and, 105
 studies of patients with, 229
 therapeutic strategies for controlling, 109
- Stress disorders, control and, 6
- Stress-reduction/relaxation program, University of Massachusetts Medical Center, 187
- Structured interviews. See Interview formats
- Subjective incompetence, 58
- Sublimation, 78
- Suboptimal control, 25–26. See also Lack of control; Optimal control health outcomes and, 91–92 negative health outcomes and, 90–93
 normal control and, 75
- Suboptimal control profiles, 57–62
 optimal control and, 81–82
- Subpersonalities, 208–209
- Substance dependence, in DSM-IV, 58
- Success
 as step in gaining sense of control, 177–178, 180–181
 trusting in skills and competence for, 197
- Superiority, will to, 34
- Symptoms, dyscontrol and, 58
- Systematic desensitization, 170
- Systems theory. See also specific issues model of clinical use of control-related strategy, 131–133, 229, 230–231
- Systolic blood pressure, 45
- “Talk,” in psychotherapy, 134
- Tantra Yoga, 78. See also Yoga
 self-control and, 76
 sexuality and, 126
- Taoism, 196
 sexuality and, 126
- Tao Te Ching, 196
- Teaching
 matching techniques/teaching style to clients, 144–145, 220–228
 in therapeutic intervention, 133
- Techniques. See also Strategies; Interventions; Control therapy in control-based approach to clinical treatment, 230–231 for developing assertive and yielding modes of control, 170–203
 for gaining assertive and yielding control, 182–193 matching of, 144–145, 220–228
 for overcoming difficulties in gaining control, 204–228
 for rewriting control stories, 168–169
 in therapeutic intervention, 133
 therapists’ views of, 142–145
- Technology, society, control, and, 283
- Ten Commandments, self-control and, 77

- Termination
 in generalized anxiety disorder case study, 241–242
 in preventive health care case study, 256
- Tests and testing. See Assessment; Inventory; Measurement of control; Paper-and-pencil tests; Scales
- Thematic Apperception Test, 138
- Theoretical Orientation Inventory (Coan), 138–139
- Theory, origins of term, 3
- Therapeutic interventions. See Interventions; Therapy
- Therapeutic schools, 133–135. See also specific schools
 analytic tradition and, 8–11
 attribution of responsibility by, 139–140
 behavioral tradition and, 11–12
 cognitive/behavioral approach, 18
 and control theories, 7–14
 humanistic/existential tradition and, 12–13 philosophical view of control and, 7, 8–9
 transpersonal tradition and, 13–14
- Therapists. See also Interventions; Techniques; Therapy assessing client's control issues by, 152–153
 attitudes of, 133
 client relationship in preventive health care case study, 251–252 control-based approach and, 171 control dynamics and orientation of, 131–151 control issues in therapeutic encounter, 136–137 control-related motivations of, 149–150 encouragement by, 217–219
 impact on clients' control stories, 165–169 influence of, 149
 pretherapy strategies of, 150 relationship issues of, 135–136
 self-disclosure by, 135 technique selection by, 143–144
 views of assessment by, 138–142
 views of importance of therapeutic relationship, 133–135
 views of techniques, 142–145
- Therapy. See also Balanced relationships; Control-based approach; Control therapy; Interventions; Psychotherapy; Systems theory; Therapists; Traditional relationships; Transitional relationships
 assessing therapeutic change, 53–54
 client handouts for assertive and yielding modes, 197–203 client's need for control in, 227–228
 client-therapist relationship during, 241 content analysis of patients entering, 59–62
 control, 281–282
 control as goal of, 62–65
 control-based interventions, 238–241 control-enhancing, 46
 in couples therapy case study, 264–268
 five-step process for gaining sense of control, 173–182 goals of control techniques in, 171
 model of 8- to 12-week control-based training intervention, 232–234

- Therapy (Continued)
 for patients at cardiovascular risk, 46
 and physical health, 109
 in preventive health care case
 study, 249–250
 process interventions
 emphasizing assertiveness or yielding, 141–142
 therapeutically beneficial variables in, 134
 therapists' control issues in,
 136–137
- Three-stage control-based model of
 relationship, 111, 112
- Tibetan monks, control of body by, 107
- Traditional relationships, control
 and abuse in, 115–116
- Traditional stage, of healthy relationships, 111, 112, 113–116
- Training
 assertiveness, 146–147, 266, 267–268
 attentional, 85
- Training intervention, model of 8- to 12-week control-based, 232–234
- Trait. See General domain
- Transference, 134, 165
 countertransference and, 135
 in therapeutic encounter, 136
- Transitional relationships
 androgyny phase in, 116–117
 changing partner in, 119–120
 divorce and, 120
 gender-based modes of control in, 116–120
 of healthy relationships, 111, 112
 recognizing differences and moving ahead in, 120
 self needs vs. partner's needs in,
 118–119
- Transpersonal tradition, 13–14, 18
- Treatment. See Case studies;
 Therapy
- Trust, in relationships, 118
- Twin studies, locus-of-control personality trait and, 28
- Type A individuals
 cognitive/behavioral intervention for, 46
 control and, 74
 health and, 99
 RCCP study with, 104
- Unconscious, self-awareness and, 70
- Unconscious defenses, 64
- Unconscious will, 10
- Unequal power. See also Power damage caused by, 114–115
 gender-based modes of control
 and, 116–120
- Uni-biopsychosocial models of
 control, 16
- Unified theory of control, 11, 14–17, 20–35
- University of California, Irvine,
 Executive Stress and Wellness
 Center at, 220
- University of Massachusetts
 Medical Center, stress-reduction/relaxation program at, 187
- Values
 clarification of, 85
 sense of control and, 85–86
- Verbal samples. See Speech samples
- Victimization, feelings of lack of
 control and, 62
- Violence
 control and, 87
 in traditional relationships, 115–116

- Visualization, 198–199
 control of body and, 107, 108
 mode rehearsal and, 191, 192
 of success, 216–217
- Vulnerability, 69
- Wallstons' Multidimensional Health Locus of Control Scales (MHLCS). See Multidimensional Health Locus of Control Scales (MHLCS)
- Wants, needs and, 76
- Way of Harmony, 195
- Weight. See also Anorexia nervosa eating disorders, control, and, 59
- Wellness, 90, 101. See also Health; Physical health
- Western traditions
 agency of control and, 66
 control myths in, 194–195
 modes of control and, 22–23, 24, 26, 33
 perceived and instrumental control in, 64
 self- and other-control in, 105
 self-awareness and, 70
 self-observation and, 183
- Will, 10. See also Free will; Self-control
- Will to meaning (Frankl), 17, 34
- Will to superiority (Adler), 10, 18, 34
- Wisdom, religion and, 86–87
- Women. See also Couples therapy case study; Feminine; Femininity; Gender and gender roles; Healthy relationships; Transitional relationships
 in balanced relationships, 121–127
 careers available to, 114
 changes in social roles of, 116 control profiles of females within model of healthy relationships, 111, 112 ethical considerations in assessing issues, 146 fear of power and success by, 117
 healthy interpersonal relations and, 110–111, 112
 modes of control by, 80–81
 profile of abused, 115–116
 in traditional relationships, 113–116
 in transitional relationships, 116–120
- Yielding/accepting modes of control, 23, 78–79. See also Balanced relationships
 balancing, 121
 body scan and, 187–188
 combining with assertive/change modes, 181–182
 control mode rehearsal and, 191–193
 control stories and, 163–164
 diaphragmatic breathing and, 187
 five steps for gaining control, 174, 178–181
 handouts for clients, 197–203
 mental scan and, 188–189
 negative cognitions regarding, 255
 process interventions
 emphasizing, 141
 self-evaluation, goal-setting, and, 189–191
 self-observation and, 183–186
 stories about, 195–196

Yielding/accepting modes of control (Continued)
techniques for developing, 170-173
therapist's use of, 137
transitional phase and, 117
of women, in traditional relationships, 114
Yin/yang concept, 79, 202

Yoga. See also Tantra Yoga
control of body and, 108
pain control and, 107
self-control and, 76, 78
Yoked experimental model, of Seligman, 95-96
Zen parable, 82, 87